

Any further communication on the subject of this letter should be addressed to

THE COMMISSIONER OF POLICE
OF THE METROPOLIS,

New Scotland Yard, S.W.,

And the following No. quoted:—

341919

New Scotland Yard, S.W.,

29th July, 1901.

Sir,

I am directed by the Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis to convey to you his thanks for the valuable assistance rendered by you to the Police on the 20th instant on the occasion of the arrest of a powerful and very violent prisoner; also for subsequently attending the Police Court to give evidence.

The Commissioner is much gratified to learn that, after your retirement from the Force, you are still so ready to assist the Police in the execution of their duty.

I am, Sir,

Your Obedient Servant,
C. J. Bathurst.
Chief Clerk.

Mr. Thomas Kemp.
